

TGIF

TEACHING GEMS, INFORMATION, FEATURES

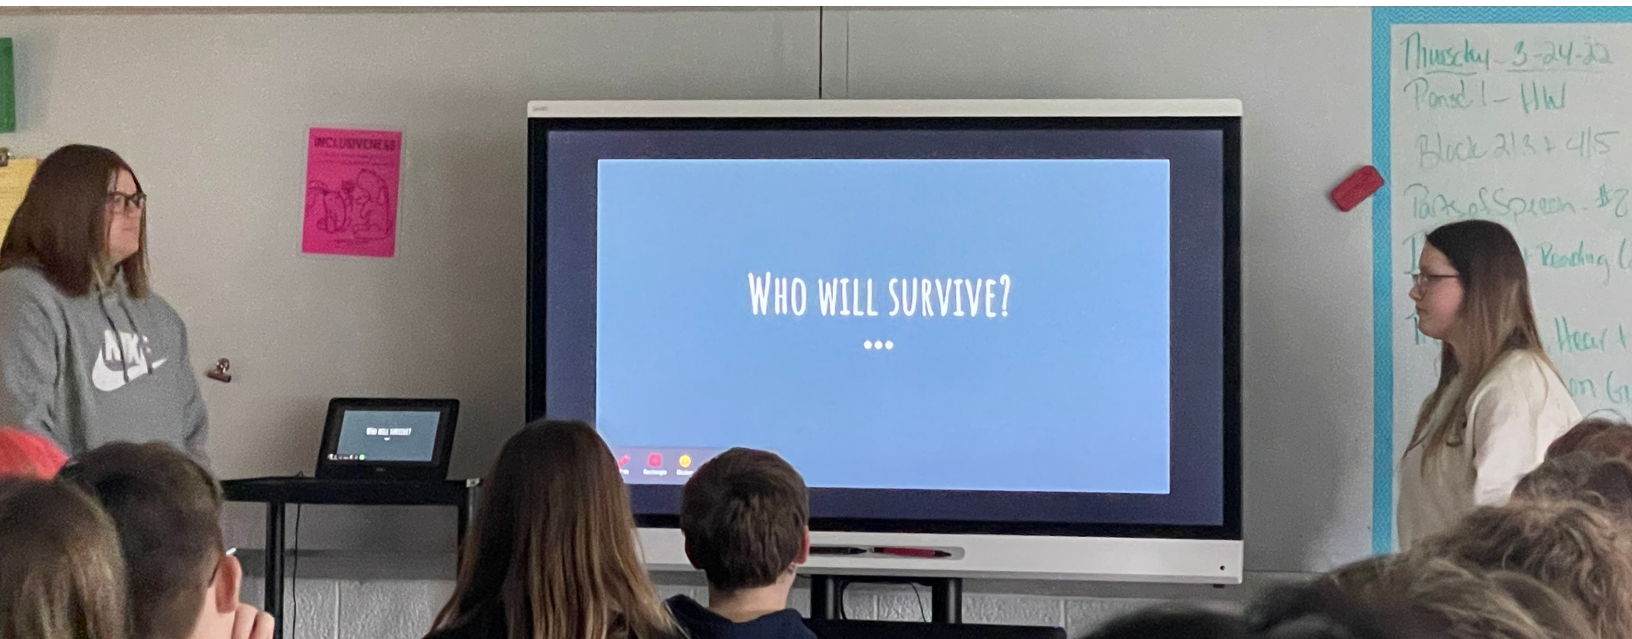

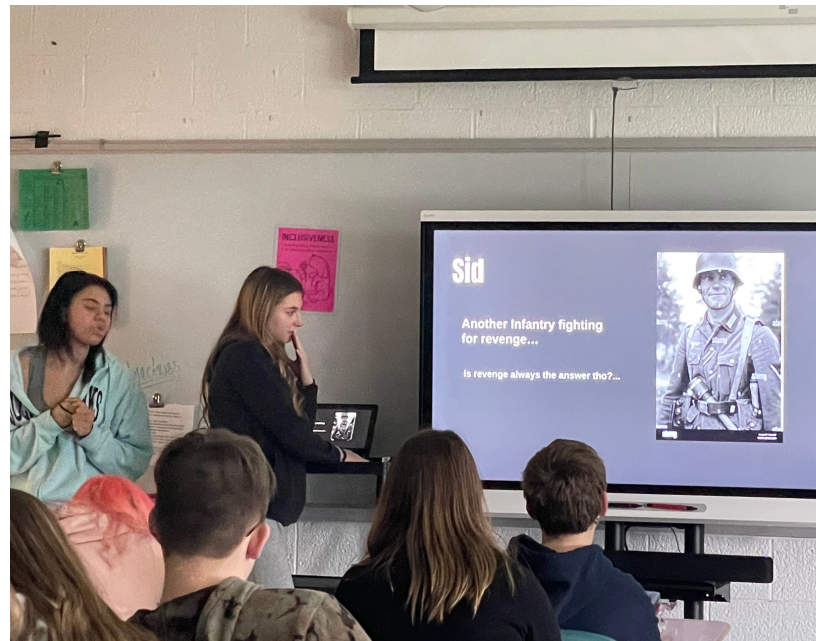

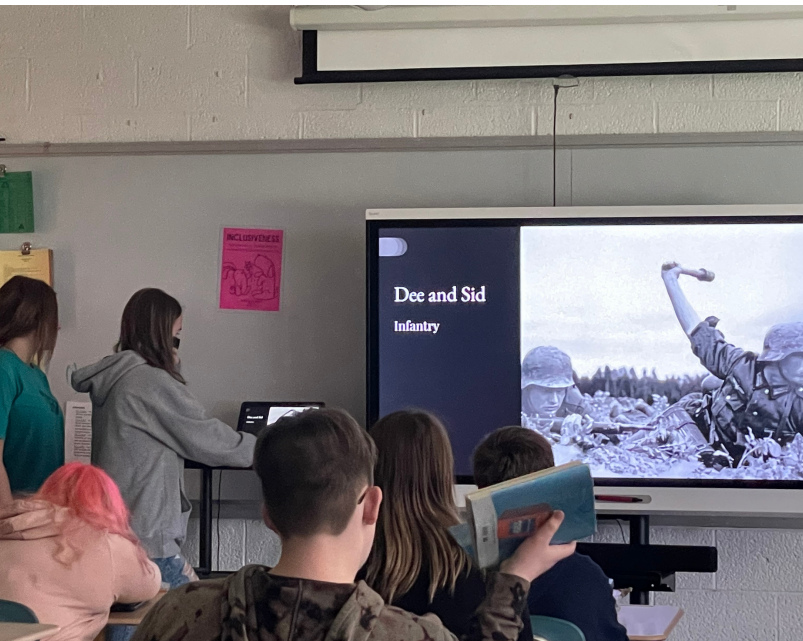

MARCH 25, 2022

FEATURES:

Movie Trailers...for Reading Comprehension

Mrs. Nicole Spiker's eighth grade class recently completed reading the novel Allies. As a culminating project, students were asked to create a movie trailer highlighting the important characters in the book.

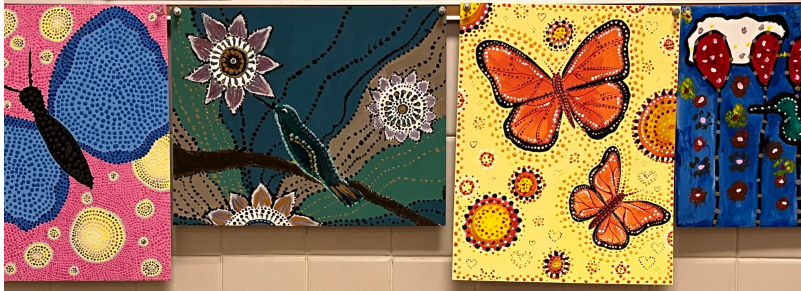

WILLIAM DEAL

Director of Teaching and Learning

TEACHING GEMS:

Art on Display

Mrs. Kaylee Haggerty's Art students are staying active thanks to LTS Ashley Spencer, who is filling in while Mrs. Haggerty is on maternity leave. Art 1 students created Aboriginal Art paintings while Art 2 students completed Stipple Portraits. Students in the Ceramics class designed Chime Creations.

INFORMATION:

Woodson Award

Congratulations to FHS Special Education teacher Heather Macon and FES paraprofessional Joyce Beighey for being named as 2022 Laretta Woodson Award recipients. They were nominated by Joe Testa and recognized by the Beaver County Chapter of the Pennsylvania Association of School Retirees. The Woodson Award honors educators for excellence in helping special needs students.

